Per CDFA State Rules for California Fairs (page 14, rule #7): “Independent junior exhibitors entering market animals must provide Fair Management with a picture of their animal, appropriate proof of ownership, permanent tag, tattoo and/or hog ear notch information 120 days prior to the start of fair for beef and 60 days for sheep, swine, and goats.”

The remaining documentation is due at the Fair Office by the following dates:
Beef & Dairy (120 days prior to the start of JLA Show) Tuesday, February 25, 2025
Hogs, Sheep & Goats (60 days prior to the start of JLA Show) Saturday, April 26, 2025
Rabbits & Poultry (30 days prior to the start of JLA Show) Tuesday, May 27, 2025

You will not be able to show/sell your animal at the fair if you do not meet these deadlines.

I understand that I must submit an entry form along with the required fees, two pictures of the animal one with visible identification (tag, notch, etc.) and one a full side view, keep and present an independent record book, complete Quality Assurance/Ethics Training (online at www.yqcaprogram.org) and abide by any other requirements of an independent exhibitor & market to be eligible to show and sell at the fair.
